Reefs, Wrecks and Daring Sailors: maritime stories from Rottneest Island Helena Johnstone

Rottneest Island has been called the brick on the doorstep to Fremantle: it's useful, but easy to trip over. Here are some tales of the men and women who have been connected to Rottneest Island over the years since its discovery by Dutch explorers.

Helena Johnstone came to Perth from the UK in 2010, and soon developed an interest in the history of WA. She is now a Rottneest Voluntary Guide, and particularly enjoys telling visitors about the social maritime history of the Island.
