

HISTORY WEST

THE ROYAL WESTERN AUSTRALIAN HISTORICAL SOCIETY INC

Workshop

Safely storing heirloom textiles.

Wendy Lugg

Do you have a wedding dress, christening gown or other textile treasure tucked away at home? Fabric items need particular care if you want them to survive to become family heirlooms that can be passed to the next generation. Come along to this workshop to learn how to best store and care for your treasured garments and textiles.

Wendy Lugg has a Certificate in Museum Studies including textile conservation. As a textile artist with 50 years' experience and museum volunteer with the Royal WA Historical Society for 15 years, Wendy has extensive experience of handling, packing and caring for costume and textile items.
