Australian Army Museum of Western Australia Walking Tour

The Tours and Events Committee invites members to join us on a tour of the highly acclaimed Australian Army Museum of Western Australia. Located in the Artillery Barracks, Burt Street, Fremantle this museum houses a treasure trove of army memorabilia and artefacts tracing WA's military history from colonial times to the present. A special highlight is the Victoria Cross Gallery which proudly displays five VCs won by Western Australians. After the tour, under the guidance of friendly museum guides, morning tea will be served giving us an opportunity to swap impressions of our visit.
