The Bunning Brother:
A Story of Success
109 Stirling Highway Nedlands
Tuesday 23 June, 10 for 10.30am

'Tom' Bunning helped make Bunnings one of the great successes of WA private enterprise and a household name nationwide. The youngest son of the company's founder, and one half of a longstanding executive partnership with brother Charles, Tom joined Bunnings on the eve of the Great Depression and helped save the company from collapse. After three and half of years as a POW in Changi, he returned to Bunning Bros and remained at its helm throughout the long post-war boom, before laying the foundations for the eventual takeover of Bunnings by Wesfarmers in 1991.

Dr Christensen is an historian at UWA and Tom Bunning's biographer.
